READING PHILOSOPHY: Jean-Paul Sartre’s Existentialism as a Humanism

Lecturer: Dr. Andrew Cooper
Office: 001, 48 Old Elvet.
Office Hour: arrange by email
Email: andrew.j.cooper@durham.ac.uk

The are no compulsory secondary readings for this module. The only compulsory reading is Sartre’s text Existentialism and Humanism. Critical selections of the following texts will, however, be discussed throughout lectures and you are very strongly encouraged to read them as instructed. Your tutor may also choose to focus on excerpts from some of these texts.

SCHEDULE

Lecture 7: Introduction to Sartre
Lecture 8: Radical Freedom
Lecture 9: Moral Dilemmas: Sartre’s critique of morality
Lecture 10: Authenticity and Bad Faith

Primary Text:

  Bring the text with you to class

Secondary Texts:

- Anderson, Sartre’s Two Ethics: From Authenticity to Integral Humanity (Open Court, 1993)

• Webber, J. The Existentialism of Jean Paul Sartre (Routledge, 2009).

• Jonathan Webber has made available various papers on the philosophy of Sartre in his website. See his website at http://www.jonathanwebber.co.uk/papers.html